

The FCC SHOULD NOT implement any proposal to preempt state Telephone Privacy laws. Since the passing of the Indiana Telephone Privacy law, we no longer have to endure the many intrusions on our privacy we were experiencing each night after a long day at work. We have made it our policy that we will not do business with anyone who practices telephone sollicitation.